

DRESS STANDARDS

The United Service Club Queensland Inc is a place where members and their guests can enjoy the many facilities available to them. Good etiquette, standards of dress and behaviour, observance of customs and plain good manners are the minimum standards for the Club.

All members are to ensure their guests maintain these standards.

Members and their guests are expected to comply with the Club's dress standards appropriate to the function and/or area of the Club they are attending. The minimum dress standards to be followed in various areas of the Club are as follows:

MAIN DINING AND BAR AREAS ON LEVEL 2

Before 6pm

Monday-Friday — Modern Professional (incl. denim on Fridays)

Weekends — Smart Casual

After 6pm

Members' Bar — Modern Professional (incl. denim on Fridays & Saturdays)

Dining Room — Formal Business

Minimum dress standard for all other areas of the Club, unless otherwise specified, is Smart Casual

All clothing is to be in good repair and not display any wording or slogan that may be offensive to other Club members and their guests. Shirts without a collar are not acceptable in any dining areas of the Club. Military Dress of the Day (including DPCU and DPNU) may be worn in all areas of the Club until 6pm.
